WILSON PHILLIPS PERFORMS SONGS OF THE BEACH BOYS AND THE MAMAS & THE PAPAS PLUS THEIR OWN HITS AT DAVIES SYMPHONY HALL SATURDAY, NOVEMBER 17 AT 8 P.M.

SAN FRANCISCO, CA (October 16, 2012) – Wilson Phillips – Chynna Phillips, Wendy Wilson and Carnie Wilson – perform some of the best-loved songs of The Beach Boys and The Mamas & the Papas and their own hits in their first San Francisco concert in five years, at Davies Symphony Hall Saturday, November 17 at 8 p.m.

One of the best-selling female groups of all time, Wilson Phillips is Carnie Wilson and Wendy Wilson (daughters of Brian Wilson of The Beach Boys) and Chynna Phillips (daughter of the late John Phillips and Michelle Phillips of The Mamas & the Papas). The four-time Grammy® nominees, backed by a five-piece band, are playing only a few special concerts in the U.S., performing songs from their new release Dedicated. The album features some of their parents' biggest hits, including "California Dreamin'," "Good Vibrations," "God Only Knows," "Don't Worry Baby," "I Can Hear Music," "Wouldn't It Be Nice," "Monday, Monday," "Fun, Fun, Fun," and "Dedicated To The One I Love."

Wilson Phillips recently performed their #1 hit "Hold On" in the 2011 hit comedy film Bridesmaids, with members of the cast singing along. The song won the Billboard Music Award for Hot 100 Single of the Year for 1990, and it earned a Grammy nomination for Song of the Year. They also had big successes with "Release Me," "You're in Love," and "Impulsive," as well as covers of Elton John and Bernie Taupin's "Daniel" and Fleetwood Mac's "Go Your Own Way."

In spring 2012, the trio starred in Wilson Phillips: Still Holding On, a TV Guide Network reality show documenting the group's adventures in and out of the recording studio. Now Chynna, Wendy and Carnie are touring to pay homage to the music of their parents, and in celebration of their own 20th year as recording artists. The women have been friends since childhood.

"My first exposure to music was of course, the music of the Beach Boys," said Carnie Wilson in a video interview about making the "Dedicated" album. "Wendy and I used to go up on stage and introduce the Beach Boys during their concerts, and then Uncle Carl (Wilson) would give us the cue to 'Good Vibrations' where we sang on the na-na-na-na part, and that was it."

"It was just incredible to sing the parts that they sing. When they recorded it in the '60s, they would do one or two takes and they would be done. We really respect how good they were," added sister Wendy.

Tickets are on sale now for Wilson Phillips at www.sfsymphony.org, by phone at 415-864-6000, and at the Davies Symphony Hall box office on Grove Street between Franklin Street and Van Ness Avenue. (Note: The concert is presented by the San Francisco Symphony; the Orchestra does not perform in this concert).
