DUNCAN SHEIK TO PERFORM SONGS FROM WHISPER HOUSE WITH
SAN FRANCISCO SYMPHONY APRIL 7-10, 2010 AT DAVIES SYMPHONY HALL

Rufus Wainwright appearances and world premiere of SF Symphony commission postponed until November 2010

WHAT:

Grammy- and two-time Tony Award-winning singer and composer Duncan Sheik (Spring Awakening) will perform the world premiere of a suite of songs from his latest work, Whisper House, with the San Francisco Symphony April 7-10, 2010 at Davies Symphony Hall. The San Francisco Symphony has commissioned new orchestrations of the songs from Whisper House, which Sheik will sing with the Orchestra. The songs, written by Sheik and Kyle Jarrow, are from the forthcoming Whisper House musical, Sheik's follow-up to his score for the Tony-winning, Broadway musical Spring Awakening.

Sheik's performance with the Orchestra is part of a program that includes other music for the stage: Poulenc's Suite from Les Biches, premiered by the Ballets Russes, and Gounod's Ballet Music from his opera Faust. The Orchestra also performs a rarely heard work by the late Canadian composer Claude Vivier, Zipangu. Former SFS Resident Conductor Edwin Outwater leads the Orchestra.

Rufus Wainwright, previously scheduled to perform with the Symphony April 7-10, has postponed his appearances until November 2010 due to a scheduling conflict. His Five Shakespeare Sonnets, commissioned by the San Francisco Symphony, will be given its world premiere at the November 2010 concerts.

Whisper House is the story of an 11-year-old boy, Christopher, who lives with his aunt in a haunted New England lighthouse following the death of his father. The ghosts, who sing all the songs on Whisper House, embody the boy's subconscious thoughts and fears. The stage production of Whisper House has its world premiere at The Old Globe in San Diego in January 2010. The score has been released on CD.

Duncan Sheik's music is perhaps most familiar to Bay Area audiences through the hugely successful run of Spring Awakening at the Curran Theater in 2008. The musical was a hit, off- and on Broadway, and is currently touring internationally. Sheik won two 2007 Tony Awards, as composer and arranger, and a 2008 Grammy Award for Spring Awakening's Best Original Score. Spring Awakening won eight Tony Awards and was named Best Musical of 2007. It was also recognized with awards from the Dramatist Guild, Drama League, the Outer Critics Circle, and with the Lucille Lortel Award.

In addition to Whisper House, Sheik and co-writer Steven Sater, with whom he wrote his 2001 album Phantom Moon, are developing two other new musical theatre projects: Nero (Another Golden Rome), a retelling of the decadent Roman emperor's life that was mounted as part of the Magic Theatre's Hot House series in 2006, and an adaptation of Hans Christian Andersen's The Nightingale, which will premiere in 2010. Sheik also composed the original score for the Marc Meyers film Harvest (2009) and has written extensively for film, including composing the original scores for Little Spirit: Christmas in New York (2008); The Cake Eaters (2007), and Through the Fire (2005). Most recently, his songs have been featured in the film soundtracks to Transamerica and Then She Found Me and in two TV episodes of 90210.

A native of Montclair, New Jersey, Sheik's 1996 self-titled debut album included "Barely Breathing," which spent 55 weeks on Billboard's Hot 100.
