JULY 12–13 PERFORMANCES OF TWOSSET VIOLIN WITH THE SAN FRANCISCO SYMPHONY POSTPONED TO A LATER DATE

All ticketholders will be contacted with information regarding rescheduled performance dates and options for their tickets

SAN FRANCISCO, CA—TwoSet Violin has regrettably had to postpone their upcoming July performances, including the July 12–13 performances with the San Francisco Symphony, due to visa processing delays. TwoSet Violin and the San Francisco Symphony are eager to reschedule these performances and are working to identify new performance dates. Updated dates will be shared as soon as they are available.

The following options are available for those who have already purchased tickets to the July 12–13 “TwoSet Violin with the San Francisco Symphony” concerts:

- Hold on to your tickets while awaiting information about rescheduled performances. All tickets and seat locations will be honored for the new concert dates. If you are unable to attend one of the new concert dates, you will still be able to return your tickets.
- Exchange your ticket(s) for any future 2025 summer performance or 2025–26 Season performance. Exchange your ticket(s) for a gift certificate, which can be used at any time.
